(2) A word or expression that is used in these Regulations and is also used in the EU Regulation, has, unless the context otherwise requires, the same meaning in these Regulations that it has in the EU Regulation.

3. (1) The Regulator is designated as the national regulatory authority in the State for the purposes of Article 5a and Article 6 of the EU Regulation and these Regulations.

(2) A request for a derogation under Article 5a(6) of the EU Regulation shall be made to the Regulator.

(3) Section 10(1) of the Communications Regulation Act 2002 (No. 20 of 2002) is amended by inserting the following paragraph after paragraph (ad):

“(ae) the functions of a national regulatory authority under Article 5a (inserted by Article 50 of Regulation (EU) 2018/1971 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 December 2018⁵) of Regulation (EU) 2015/2120 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 25 November 2015⁶.”.

4. (1) Where the Regulator finds that an undertaking has not complied with an obligation under Article 5a of the EU Regulation, the Regulator shall notify the undertaking of its finding and give the undertaking an opportunity to state its views or, if the non-compliance can be remedied, to remedy the non-compliance within a reasonable time-limit as specified by the Regulator.

(2) The Regulator may publish, in such manner as it thinks fit, any notification given by it under this Regulation subject to the protection of the confidentiality of any information that the Regulator considers confidential.

(3) The Regulator may amend or revoke any notification under this Regulation.

(4) Where, at the end of a period specified by the Regulator in a notification under paragraph (1) the Regulator is of the opinion that the undertaking concerned has not complied with its obligations under Article 5a, the Regulator may, whether or not the non-compliance is continuing and subject to paragraph (8), apply to the High Court for an order under paragraph (6).

(5) The High Court may make such interim or interlocutory order as it considers appropriate pending determination of an application made under paragraph (4) and the Court may not refuse interim or interlocutory relief merely because the Regulator may not suffer damage if relief is not granted pending determination of the application.

 - (b) Such an application for an order in respect of a financial penalty for a period of non-compliance may be made even if there since has been compliance with the obligation.
 - (c) In deciding on such an application, the High Court shall decide the amount, if any, of the financial penalty which should be payable and shall not be bound by the amount proposed by the Regulator.

- (d) Any financial penalty ordered by the High Court to be paid by an undertaking under this paragraph shall be paid to and retained by the Regulator as income.
- (e) In deciding what amount, if any, should be payable, the High Court shall consider the circumstances of the non-compliance with the obligation including -
 - (i) its duration,
 - (ii) the effect on consumers,
 - (iii) the submissions of the Regulator on the appropriate amount,
 - (iv) any excuse or explanation for the non-compliance, including any evidence from the undertaking that reasonable steps were taken to comply with the obligation or that it was not possible to comply with the obligation, and
 - (v) any evidence that the undertaking profited or has been unjustly enriched, whether directly or indirectly, as a result of the non-compliance.

(9) Where the Regulator has brought proceedings for an offence under these Regulations or given a notice under section 44 of the Act of 2002 in respect of an alleged offence under these Regulations, the Regulator shall not make an application for an order under this Regulation to the High Court to compel compliance by the undertaking with the obligation to which the proceedings or notice relates.

5. (1) Where the Regulator issues a notification under Regulation 4, it shall be in writing, state the reasons on which it is based, be addressed to the undertaking concerned and, as soon as practicable, be sent or given in any of the following ways:

- (a) by delivering it to the undertaking;
- (b) by leaving it at the address at which the undertaking carries on business or, in a case in which an address for service has been furnished, at that address;

means to such address, provided that it is also delivered in any of the other ways referred to in this paragraph.

(2) For the purposes of this Regulation, a company formed and registered under the Companies Act 2014 (No. 38 of 2014), or an existing company within the meaning of that Act, shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its registered office and every other body corporate and every unincorporated body of persons shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its principal office or place of business.

6. (1) An undertaking that charges a retail price to consumers for regulated intra-EU communications in contravention of an obligation under Article 5a of the EU Regulation commits an offence.

(4) A person that commits an offence under this Regulation is liable on summary conviction to a class A fine.

(5) In a prosecution for an offence under this Regulation it is a defence for the person charged to show that he or she took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence.

(6) Proceedings for an offence under this Regulation may be brought and prosecuted by the Regulator.

(7) An offence under this Regulation is an offence to which section 44 of the Act of 2002 applies.

(8) If –

(a) the Regulator has made an application under Regulation 4 to the High Court to secure an undertaking's compliance with an obligation under Article 5a, and

(b) it is an offence to fail to comply with that obligation, proceedings may not be brought against the undertaking for such an offence under this Regulation and notice may not be given under section 44 of the Act of 2002 in respect of the undertaking's failure to comply with the obligation.

7. Where an offence under these Regulations is committed by a body corporate and is proved to have been so committed with the consent or connivance of or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of any person, being a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate, or a person who was purporting to act in such capacity, that person shall, as well as the body corporate, be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished as if he or she were guilty of the first-mentioned offence.

8. Regulation 14 (as amended by Regulation 4 of the Communications (Mobile Telephone Roaming) Regulations 2013 (S.I.
